REVIVE Wesley Heritage Tour

Day 1: Friday, March 5: Departure
Evening Flight from Austin to London

Day 2: Saturday, March 6: Arrive London/Oxford
Arrive at Heathrow, meet your Faith Journeys Tour Manager and motorcoach, and travel to Oxford. Take an easy orientation walk through this historic university city. Check into the hotel and enjoy a welcome dinner together.

Day 3: Sunday, March 7: Oxford
Begin your morning with breakfast at the hotel. The Methodist movement began with college students, and today you'll walk their campus. Visit Christ Church, where John and Charles Wesley were students, and its cathedral, where both were ordained. At Lincoln College, where John served as a fellow, see the Wesley Room and the chapel where he preached. Here, a small group of friends met to pray, study Scripture, and serve others. Other students mocked them as the "Holy Club," but their faith would go on to change the world. Continue to the University Church of St Mary the Virgin, where Wesley also preached. Gather for a group dinner in the evening.

Day 4: Monday, March 8:
Oxford/Hanham Mount/Bristol
Following breakfast and checkout, depart Oxford and travel to Bristol. En route, stop at Hanham Mount, where John Wesley preached in the open air to the Kingswood miners, people the church wasn't reaching. Continue to Bristol and enjoy an introduction to this historic city. Enjoy free time exploring Bristol's historic center and harbor-side. Discover the city's rich history and its connection to the early Methodist movement. Check into your hotel and enjoy a group dinner.

Day 5: Tuesday, March 9: Bristol (B,D)
[No motorcoach service this day] After breakfast at the hotel, step inside John Wesley's New Room, the world's oldest Methodist building. Built in 1739, it became a center for worship, teaching, and care for people in need. Tour the historic chapel and the museum, then visit the home of Charles Wesley, whose hymns are still sung around the world today. This afternoon, take in the city's creative side on a street art walk, or head to the Clifton Suspension Bridge for sweeping views over the Avon Gorge. Return to the hotel for a group dinner.

Day 6: Wednesday, March 10:
Bristol/Harry Potter Studio Tour/London
After breakfast at the hotel and check-out, travel to the Warner Bros. Studio Tour London, The Making of Harry Potter. Step onto the original sets and see the props and costumes from the films. Continue to your London area hotel this evening and enjoy dinner with the group.

Day 7: Thursday, March 11: London
[No motorcoach service this day with a £15 Oyster Card included] Begin the day with breakfast at your hotel and then an audio-guided visit to St Paul's Cathedral, one of the most iconic landmarks on the London skyline, where John Wesley worshipped and preached on many occasions. From there, make your way to Wesley's Chapel on City Road, built by John Wesley himself in 1778 and still in use as a place of worship today. Your self-guided visit includes the Museum of Methodism, housed in the crypt below the chapel, and Wesley's House next door, where John Wesley lived out the final years of his life and where so many of his personal belongings and furnishings are preserved. Then stop at Bunhill Fields, which holds the grave of his mother, Susanna, along with John Bunyan and William Blake. Enjoy the afternoon on your own to explore London, then come together in the evening for a farewell dinner.

Day 8: Friday, March 12: Return Home
After breakfast, transfer to Heathrow for your flight home

Tour price including airfare from Austin, TX: $1,300
